Membership Fees: The additional membership fees for Performance groups are $40 and non-refundable, and this includes Gymnastics BC Insurance.

Program Commitment:

It is important that Performance and Performance Plus athletes commit to a full season (Sept-June) of training and parents are committing to the full amount till June. If athletes quit mid-season for non-medical reasons, Whistler Gymnastics reserves the right to request full payment of the annual fee.

Program fee include a team bodysuit and training on the days your child is assigned with theme days, prizes and special events included. They also include all choreography of routines and the accompaniment of a coach to meets.

Program fees do not include: additional events or added training, camps, travel and meet fees/expenses.

Classes are subject to enrolment and coach availability. Whistler Gymnastics reserves the right to place athletes in the appropriate age and ability groups.

Refunds:

Membership Fees are non-refundable.

You have until Sept 30 to withdraw from the program to get a refund. After that, no refunds will be issued without a medical certificate (for 3 weeks or more of absence). Refunds are prorated to the latter date of written notification and medical or actual program withdrawal. A request for a refund must be forwarded to the board for approval.

Volunteer Levy: 5% is added to your program fee. You can earn this back at the rate of $15 per hour of volunteer work by tracking and submitting your volunteer hours before Feb. 15 and end of season June 22. The credit will be applied to your account for a refund or future use.

Fundraising: As a not-for-profit organization, fundraising is part of Whistler Gymnastics operational budget. We expect your support during the season with our fundraising efforts in order to keep our programs fees down. More details will be given on volunteer opportunities at the beginning of the season.
